August 13 & 14, 2010

Newman Outdoor Field • Fargo, North Dakota

For Immediate Release

July 12, 2010

Fargo Moorhead AM Rotary Announces Lobster and Lefse Festival

What: Press conference announcing the first annual Lobster and Lefse festival; proceeds primarily benefit YWCA Cass Clay, Rape and Abuse Crisis Center and area Rotary projects

When: July 14, 2010 at 9:00am

Where: Newman Outdoor Field, Main Concourse

Why: The Lobster and Lefse Festival will take place August 13-14 at Newman Outdoor Field in Fargo, 11am to 11pm each day. This is not a lobster dinner, but a true festival where you can come as you are and select from a wide variety of food options. The featured items will be live Maine lobster, fresh North Dakota lefse, and corn on the cob for $20. Additional seafood and stadium-style foods will be available.

There will be entertainment both days of the festival. Games Galore will provide inflatable games and activities for children. Musical acts and other entertainment will be announced soon.

The Lobster and Lefse Festival is a community-festival organized by the Fargo Moorhead AM Rotary Club. Proceeds from the festival benefit the YWCA Cass Clay and the Rape and Abuse Crisis Center, as well as other Rotary Projects.

Who: Fargo Moorhead AM Rotary Club, Rape and Abuse Crisis Center, YWCA Cass Clay
